

Are Modern Values Steering Us Away from God's Path?

Sixbert SANGWA • May 31, 2024

In recent times, there has been a growing concern among Christians and other morally conscious individuals about the increasingly permissive behavior exhibited in public and private life. Behaviors once deemed inappropriate, such as wearing revealing clothing like bikinis in public or appearing half-naked, are now often defended under the guise of development, self-awareness, and other modern buzzwords. This trend is symptomatic of a broader cultural shift influenced by New Age ideologies, teachings, and philosophies that align with what many believe to be the onset of the Antichrist's rule and the New World Order.

The Erosion of Moral Standards

Today's urban centers, in particular, have become hotbeds for behaviors and lifestyles that starkly contrast with Biblical teachings. Men and women increasingly engage in extramarital affairs, while premarital sex has become normalized among the youth. Additionally, there is a growing acceptance and even celebration of various hedonistic and immoral behaviors, such as:

- Substance Abuse: The rampant use of drugs and excessive consumption of alcohol.
- Pornography: The widespread consumption and normalization of pornography, which degrades the sanctity of marital intimacy.
- Lustful Entertainment: The prevalence of explicit content in movies, music, and video games that promote sexual immorality and violence.
- Materialism: The obsession with wealth, luxury, and the constant pursuit of material possessions at the expense of spiritual values.
- Gambling: The rise of gambling and the lottery, which can lead to addiction and financial ruin.
- Profanity and Vulgarity: The increasing use of profane and vulgar language in everyday conversation and media.
- Disrespect for Authority: The growing trend of disrespecting parents, elders, and other authority figures.
- Homosexuality and Same-Sex Marriage: The acceptance and legal recognition of same-sex relationships, contrary to Biblical teachings.
- Abortion: The widespread acceptance of abortion as a right, disregarding the sanctity of life.

These behaviors echo the hedonistic culture of ancient Babylon, which Revelation 18:2-4 warns against, urging believers to "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins."

The Normalization of Immorality

The normalization of such behaviors is often justified by the assertion of personal rights and freedoms. Society teaches that individuals have the right to do as they please with their bodies. However, the Bible presents a different perspective. In 1 Corinthians 6:19-20, the Apostle Paul reminds us, "Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies."

The Clash with Biblical Teachings

The Apostle Paul further elaborates in 1 Corinthians 6:12-17, stating that while "I have the right to do anything," not everything is beneficial, and believers should not be mastered by anything. These scriptures underscore the Christian belief that our bodies are not meant for sexual immorality but for honoring God.

Unfortunately, the prevalent culture teaches otherwise, promoting the idea that individuals can use their bodies in any way that pleases them. This is part of a broader agenda that many attribute to the influence of organizations like the Illuminati, which, according to some theories, aim to undermine Christian values through various means, including Alice Bailey's ten-point plan. This plan allegedly seeks to Separate children from parental authority, promote divorce, normalize free sex and promote abortion and homosexuality.

These goals align with the broader objectives purportedly outlined in the 21 goals of the Illuminati, such as introducing new cults, promoting religious liberation ideas to undermine Christianity, and ultimately seeking the destruction of traditional religion.

The Call to Righteousness

As Christians, we must remain vigilant and steadfast in our faith. The Bible warns us that these times will come, but it also offers hope. Jesus Himself said, "Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy written in this scroll" (Revelation 22:7). The imminent return of Christ and the rapture should motivate us to live lives that honor God and reflect His holiness. To those who are part of religious communities yet engage in or condone such behaviors, the Bible provides a stern warning. It is not enough to appear religious outwardly; our actions must align with our faith. As James 1:22 exhorts, "Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says."

Conclusion: A Call to Action

In conclusion, the moral decline we witness today is a clear indication of the spiritual battle we are in. It is a call to Christians to rise above the cultural tide and adhere to the teachings of the Bible. The allure of modern ideologies and the promise of unrestricted personal freedoms are deceptive paths leading away from God. Instead, let us heed the call to come out of Babylon, recognizing that our true freedom and identity are found in Christ alone.

As we navigate these challenging times, let us remember Paul's words in Romans 12:2, "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will." Let us be the wise who seek God's wisdom and stand firm in our faith, awaiting the glorious return of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
